THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 20, 1908.

The New Watch. The young man drew forth a fine gold watch.

"Please regulate this," he said. "A birthday present, eh?" said the vatchmaker. "Now, listen, and I'll watchmaker. give you some pointers about how to keep this watch in fine condition. "Wind it in the morning instead of at night. "At least once a year have it oiled Remember that its balance swings 18, 000 times a year, all on one little drop of oil. A wheelbarrow wouldn't stan: such treatment. It would shrick for lubrication, but the small voice of the watch cannot be heard. "After mending or cleaning examine your watch's screw heads and frames. If they are scratched the workman has been careless. He is a man to be avoided. Patronize him no more. "Don't grumble if your mainspring breaks. This accident is due to some unknown condition of the weather. There are mainspring epidemics, like influenza ones. Just now such an epi demic is afoot. I have taken out sixty fractured mainsprings this week." New Orleans Times-Democrat.

He had the air of a man who was particularly well satisfied with himself. "I tell you," he said, "there's nothing like having sickness in the family to convince a man that he can do a good many things that he never would have dared to attempt before. On the day following he had the air of a man who was particularly dissatisfied with himself.

"What's the matter?" he was asked Couldn't you get that gown?" "Couldn't I get it!" he repeated.
"Couldn't I get it! Hang it all, the trouble is that I did get it!"

"Something wrong with it?"
"Something! If it was only 'some thing' I wouldn't mind. My taste is wrong, my judgment is wrong, the color is wrong, the size is wrong and the price is wrong."-Chicago Post.

Seeing Ourselves.

"The man who can pick out the be picture of himself is a rare bird," said photographer. "Even an author who is reputedly a poor judge of his own work, exercises vast wisdom in selecting his best book compared with the person who tries to choose his best photograph. Every famous man of woman who has been photographed re peatedly has his favorite picture Usually it is the worst in the collection. It shows him with an unnatura expression sitting or standing in an unnatural attitude.

A stout man will swear that the photograph most nearly like him is one that makes him look thin, a thin man the one that makes him look stout. The solemn man selects the jolliest picture, the jovial man the most cadaverous.

On Again, Off Again.

A young New York artist who is almost as noted for his convivial tendencies as he is for his genius was recently asked by a friend:

"What does your wife think of these Country Produce received daily. Our stock of Plain and Fancy Groceries embraces everything to be had in this line.

We hold largely in United States bonded warehouse and carry in stock various brands of the best spells? I should think she would not submit to them."

"When I have a spree," confessed just as good to me as any one possibly could be. She takes care of me and nurses me back to decency with a kindness that is superhuman-it is angelic and beyond belief.

"But once I am sober again she be gins to nag me to promise her and swear to her that I never, never, never again will drink a drop, and she keeps at me so determinedly and so persist ently that-by Jove-she makes me se desperate that I have to go and fill up again so I can forget it."

Spelled in Full.

"We had an editor in chief on our paper years ago who was a stickler for no abbreviations," said a veteran news paper man. "He didn't believe in abbreviating anything but the word mister. The names of states had to be spelled out. One time one of the boys wrote a news story which contained this clause: 'And Mozart's mass was played.' The proofreader who got the story had been under the exacting direction of that editor for years, too many years to allow any proper name to get by him without being spelled out, so when he came to this 'mass' he 'rung' the word, and it came out 'Mo-sart's Massachusetts.'"-Omaha Bee.

A Faithful Friend,

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use.
